the first Chinese being transmitted into Europe. On the seminar, Professor Liu Yuebing, Dean of the Japanese Research school in Japan. The Huangbo Canon was carved based on the Jiaxing Canon. It also has a unique place interruption. This canon contains 1216 titles, 5053 fascicles, 171 cases, and 1252 booklets altogether.

Book Reviews:

2. “From the 'Cult of the Book' to the 'Cult of the Canon': a Neglected Tradition of the Modern Buddhism Canon in Japan”

3. “Fayuan Zhulin: The Beginning of the Western Handling of the Chinese Buddhist Canon”

8. “From the Fayuan Zhulin to the Taishō Buddhist Canon: The Compilation of a Dharma Treasure”

4. “From the Fayuan Zhulin to the Taishō Buddhist Canon: The Compilation of a Dharma Treasure”

6. “From the Fayuan Zhulin to the Taishō Buddhist Canon: The Compilation of a Dharma Treasure”

More information introducing scholars' achievements, exchange of ideas, and academic activities is available on the website below:

http://www.zhongjilian.com/hd/2018/05-12/45921_0.html