

UACBS NEWS DIGEST
 2021 (1)
 Issue No. 1
 March 5

Dear Friends,
 We are glad to announce that the first issue of the news digest for the UA Center for Buddhist Studies has been published. This news digest presents recent conferences, new research, focused initiatives, and various lecture series related to global Buddhist Studies. It will be published twice a semester to get the digested information to you.

If you would like to receive regular updates about our center's activities and events, please update your preferences or sign up for our email list by clicking <http://eepurl.com/gb2yaD> and select the following groups according to your preference:

- "Chinese Buddhist Canon Research Newsletter"
- "Lectures and Academic Research"
- "Courses and Education Programs"
- "Community, Health, Wellness"

Please select as many as you like. If you do not select any of the above options, you will receive this bi-monthly news digest. You can always go to our website at cbs.arizona.edu to check the latest updates.

As a friend of the Center for Buddhist Studies at the University of Arizona, you have shown that you care about keeping connected to our community. If you enjoy our lectures and programs, please renew your support today.

DONATE NOW >>

Center for Buddhist Studies
 The University of Arizona

UPCOMING BUDDHIST STUDIES LECTURE SERIES

April 8. Pu Yin Buddhist Studies Lecture Spring 2021: Prof. Takashi Miura

Pu Yin Buddhist Studies Lecture Spring 2021

BUDDHISM AND PROTEST IN EARLY MODERN JAPAN: BUDDHIST PRIESTS AS ARBITERS OF CONFLICTS IN LOCAL COMMUNITIES

Thursday, April 8, 2021
 4 PM Mountain Standard Time

Professor Takashi Miura
 Department of East Asian Studies
 The University of Arizona

cbs.arizona.edu

BUDDHISM AND PROTEST IN EARLY MODERN JAPAN: BUDDHIST PRIESTS AS ARBITERS OF CONFLICTS IN LOCAL COMMUNITIES

Takashi Miura, Associate Professor, Department of East Asian Studies, the University of Arizona More

UACBS/AWCIM BUILDING PROJECT UPDATES

COH Dean Alain-Philippe Durand Announcing Building Plans for Our Center

Buddhist Studies Preparing for New Home In Weil Center

The University of Arizona Center for Buddhist Studies will have its new physical home in the Andrew Weil Center for Integrative Medicine, a landmark facility that will be dedicated to health and wellness.

The partnership is rooted in the complementary nature of the two Centers and will facilitate collaborations between the two programs. Like integrative medicine, Buddhist Studies takes a humanistic approach to the physical, mental, and spiritual well-being of individuals and the community.

A fundraising campaign is underway, including a naming opportunity. More

CBS News Brief

DIRECTOR'S 2021 NEW YEAR MESSAGE
 Dear faculty, staff, students, and friends of the Center for Buddhist Studies, ... More

"Reflections" 2021: The Annual Newsletter from CBS

We are pleased to announce that the 2021 Center for Buddhist Studies newsletter has been published. More

CENTER IN THE NEWS

The University of Arizona Center for Buddhist Studies has been in the news in the US and in China, with stories covering our 3rd anniversary concert and our new home in the Andrew Weill Center for Integrative Medicine. More

Center for Buddhist Studies Celebrates Third Anniversary.

As our community faces unprecedented challenges during these uncertain times, the Center for Buddhist Studies is grateful for the community's support and pleased to celebrate our third anniversary. More

UACBS Published the First and Second Issues of Chinese Buddhist Canon Research Newsletter

The Center for Buddhist Studies is pleased to announce that we have published the first issue of the monthly Chinese Buddhist Canon Research Newsletter, with the Center's Director Professor Jiang Wu serving as Editor-in-Chief and Dr. Zhouyuan Lee, a post-doc at Sun Yat-sen University in Guangzhou, China, serving as Executive Editor. More on the first issue. More on the second issue.

UACBS Published the First and Second Community Wellness Digest

Welcome to the Center for Buddhist Studies Community Wellness Digest! In this monthly email, we will share wisdom from Buddhist teachings you can use in your daily life, wellness tips, and information about university and community events. More on the first digest. More on the second digest.

Recent Lingyin Lecture Series

Lingyin Lecture 2021 No. 1

HÔTAN IN THE WORLD OF EARLY-MODERN JAPANESE BUDDHISM

Prof. Sueki Fumihiko
 The University of Tokyo
 and Nichibunken

January 26, 2021 @ 5 PM MST

Sponsored by Lingyin Temple
 Hangzhou, China

cbs.arizona.edu

Lingyin Buddhist Studies Lecture 2021 No. 1 HÔTAN 鳳潭 IN THE WORLD OF EARLY-MODERN JAPANESE BUDDHISM

Sueki Fumihiko 末木文美士, Professor Emeritus, The University of Tokyo and Nichibunken (the International Research Center for Japanese Studies). More

Lingyin Lecture 2021 No. 2

A REMEMBRANCE OF NAMES: A BUDDHIST MONUMENT TO THE WWII JAPANESE AMERICAN INCARCERATION

Prof. Duncan Ryuken Williams
 University of Southern California

February 19, 2021 @ 4 PM MST

Sponsored by Lingyin Temple
 Hangzhou, China

cbs.arizona.edu

Lingyin Lecture 2021 No. 2: Prof. Duncan Ryuken Williams

Professor/Duncan Ryuken Williams, Professor of Religion/American Studies & Ethnicity/East Asian Languages & Cultures and Director, USC Shinso Ito Center for Japanese Religions and Culture, University of Southern California. More

Follow this link for the video recording of Dr. Williams's lecture.

If you wish to watch some of the video recordings of our past lectures, please visit our YouTube channel by clicking the link below:

UA Center for Buddhist Studies

Awards & Accolades

Lingyin Buddhist Studies Best Graduate Research Paper Award

Thanks to the generous support from Lingyin Temple in Hangzhou China, the Center for Buddhist Studies at the University of Arizona establishes a Buddhist Studies Best Graduate Research Paper Award for graduate students who demonstrate superb research abilities through writing and publishing. More

UACBS Buddhist Studies Doctoral Fellowship

Thanks to the generous support of Lingyin Temple in Hangzhou, China and the Khyentse Foundation, the Center for Buddhist Studies at the University of Arizona establishes several graduate fellowships to support two or more qualified Ph.D. students (not visiting or affiliated students), to complete a major project towards the completion of their degrees. More

Faculty Spotlight

Faculty Spotlight: Prof. Jiang Wu

Faculty Spotlight: Prof. Albert Welter

Faculty Spotlight: Prof. Alfred Kaszniak

Faculty Spotlight: Prof. Takashi Miura

<https://www.facebook.com/UACBS>

<https://www.twitter.com/UACBSofficial/>